Industrial Action at Queanbeyan South Public School

On Wednesday the 4 May 2022, due to the industrial action taken from the NSW Teacher Federation, Queanbeyan South Public School will be operational with minimal supervision.

This means that those students who do attend will have teacher supervision but no formal lessons will be provided.

Students will be supervised across a combined Kindergarten to Year 6 setting. Students will be given playground time under teacher supervision throughout the day.

There will be no canteen available.

Thank you for your support.
