Education Week Assembly

Next week we will be celebrating Education Week. We will be hosting a Whole School Assembly on Wednesday 8 August. We would love to see parents join us on the day, as students showcase some of their fabulous work.

Welcome Miss Dunger

Miss Dunger joined the Infants staff at the beginning of this term, taking over 1/2H. Miss Dunger is a highly experienced teacher with an extensive wealth of knowledge. We wish her a great start at QSPS. I know you will make her welcome as she settles in.

Farewell Miss Hudson

As Miss Dunger starts at QSPS I would also like to farewell Miss Hudson. She has been a valued member of our staff over the last few years. We will miss her and wish her all the best on her new adventures.

Library News

I hope that you all had a wonderful holiday and were able to enjoy some lovely books. I finished reading the shortlisted books from the young reader section whilst I was relaxing in Newstead.

I am looking forward to our Book Week Events that will be happening in Week 6. On Tuesday 28 August, it is Bedtime Story Night. Students will be invited to come to school in their pyjamas, after dinner, to hear stories read by school staff and enjoy a milo and biscuits. This event was enjoyed by many last year. On Thursday 30 August, we will be having our Book Week Parade and I can't wait to see all of your costumes. The theme this year is 'Find Your Treasure'.

Friday 31 August is the last day to have your Premier Reading Challenge completed and returned to me. This means that there is only 5 weeks left to finish reading your books. If you haven't started yet you will still have time. This is going to be a very busy week.

"When we read a story, we inhabit it. The covers of the book are like a roof and four walls. What is to happen next will take place within the four walls of the story. And this is possible because the story's voice makes everything its own." - John Berger, Keeping a Rendezvous
